Chris Doggett

Executive Vice President

Chris Doggett serves as Executive Vice President for Stream Realty Partners' Fort Worth office. In his new role, Chris will lead the company's office division within Fort Worth while focusing on continued growth of Stream's existing office portfolio, recruitment of new talent, and overall expansion of the office division within the market.

Chris specializes in marketing and leasing office properties including existing, redeveloped, and ground up buildings. Chris has over 21 years of experience in Dallas-Fort Worth and is passionate about partnering with clients to enable them to reach their goals, and has leased over 6 million square feet of office in his career.

Prior to joining Stream Fort Worth, Chris was the Executive Vice President with JLL Dallas, where he focused on office leasing assignments as well as business development.
