Senior Associate

Claudia Taylor joined Stream Realty Partners in 2021 and serves as an Associate within Stream Austin's Tenant Representation division. Claudia is responsible for developing new business opportunities, financial underwriting, and advising clients on their real estate transactions. Her expertise lies in advising both local and national occupiers on office relocations, expansions, right-sizing, and lease restructuring. With a deep understanding of the Austin market and a keen eye for detail, she can advise her clients in navigating the complexities of the leasing process while ensuring their real estate decisions are aligned with overall financial, cultural, and strategic business objectives. Claudia has experience working with law firms, professional services firms, VC-backed technology firms, and non-profits.

Claudia is a proud born and raised Austinite. She earned her BBA from the McCombs School of Business at the University of Texas.
