Jessica O'Hara

Senior Vice President

Jessica O'Hara joined Stream in 2019 and is a Senior Vice President for the firm's Chicago Office division to focus on office landlord representation. Jessica specializes in maximizing an asset's value through creative leasing efforts, systematic market and financial analysis, and comprehensive lease negotiations. In addition, some of her other responsibilities include expanding Stream's acquisition, development, leasing, and property management platforms and growing Stream's presence in the greater Chicago market.

Prior to joining Stream, Jessica spent the majority of her 8 year career in the commercial real estate industry with CBRE, Inc. where she focused on office leasing, tenant representation, and transaction management. During her time at CBRE, Jessica completed over 1.2 M SF of transactions, totaling over $200,000,000 in transaction volume.
