Kim Jackson

Managing Director of Property Management

With 20 years' experience serving the Commercial Real Estate industry, Kim Jackson has specialized in several areas of the industry including marketing, leasing, construction management, and property management. Currently, Kimberley serves as the Managing Director of Property Management with Stream Realty Partners in Atlanta, GA.

After receiving her Bachelor of Arts Degree in Education from the National University in San Diego, CA, Kimberley sought after a career in Commercial Real Estate. Her previous employment includes service for Endeavor Real Estate, REIT Management and Research, and CB Richard Ellis (CBRE) where she acquired her extensive background of managing over 7 million square feet of commercial properties in total.

Under Kimberley's leadership, several of her buildings received awards and designations including those of the highest distinctions. In 2010, Kimberley's previously managed building received the "BOMA International Toby Award" for buildings under 500,000 square feet category. The building became LEED Silver certified in early 2015, receiving all points it applied for, and currently leases to one of the largest social media companies in the world.

In addition to her dedication to property management, Kimberley is an active member of IREM (Institute of Real Estate Management) and BOMA (Building Owners and Managers Association). Since her
