Kristin Wall

Vice President, Construction

Kristin Wall serves as Vice President of Construction on Houston's interiors construction team. While managing both office and industrial build-outs, she facilitates communication between the client and contractors, keeps up-to-date records of the construction process, and remains invested in every job from the bidding stages through project completion.

Kristin brings with her six years of project management experience for a high-end corporate interior general contractor. She has managed large multi-floor tenant projects, capital improvement projects, smaller renovations, and anything in between. Kristin's extensive knowledge in the general contractor arena assists her in managing hired contractors in order to deliver a seamless product to the client.
