Kyle Valentine

Executive Managing Director & Partner

Kyle Valentine is one of the founding members of the Houston office and serves as Executive Managing Director & Partner, primarily focused on spearheading the firm's growth and other strategic initiatives across its existing platform and markets identified for future expansion.

Kyle joined Stream's Dallas team in 2003 where he helped to lead Stream's industrial real estate platform. In Houston, he has been instrumental in leading the firm's growth to a team of over 150 professionals and a portfolio of over 45 million square feet. In addition to Kyle's vast industrial real estate experience, he has been significantly involved in the growth of the firm's property management, development, and marketing teams. Under his leadership, the Houston office has received numerous accolades including Best Places to Work by the Houston Business Journal, Top Workplace by the Houston Chronicle, Power Broker by CoStar Group and a Pinnacle Award Winner by Houston's Better Business Bureau.

Kyle has served on the board of directors for the Houston Better Business Bureau and on the board of directors of the Houston chapter of NAIOP.
