Nate Hruby

Senior Associate

Nate Hruby is a Senior Associate within Stream's Tenant Representation team. His primary responsibilities include developing new business opportunities through prospecting, networking, relationship building, and selling additional Stream services.

Prior to joining Stream, Nate served as a Program Manager in the United States Air Force, overseeing the successful production and deployment of satellites. Before he was a Program Manager, Nate worked as a Space Operations Officer, operating satellites and planning satellite missions for the Air Force. Nate's proven leadership and project management skills make him an asset to Stream.
