Nathan Thornhill

Vice President of Industrial Leasing

Nathan Thornhill started at Stream Realty Partners in January 2023 as a Vice President of Industrial Leasing in Austin. He is responsible for growing the firm's service business in Central Texas while representing investors, owners, and tenants in leasing, site selection, acquisitions, dispositions, and development services.

Prior to joining Stream, Nathan spent nearly six years at OakPoint, an owner-operator with offices in Austin and Nashville. He ascended from a Development Associate to Director of Leasing, where he was responsible for running the lease process on OakPoint assets in Texas and a handful of select third-party assignments. His experience in leasing with an owners' mindset adds value to the clients he serves at Stream.

Nathan began his career as a Market Research Intern at Heritage Title Company in Austin before moving to Haverwood Management, which later became OakPoint, as an Associate. From July 2014 to October 2015, he was a right-handed pitcher in the Philadelphia Phillies organization.

When not working, Nathan enjoys spending time with his wife, Katherine, and their puppy, Izzy, as well as golfing, hunting, and attending sporting events at The University of Texas at Austin.
