Todd Noonan, CCIM, SIOR

Senior Vice President

Todd Noonan joined Stream Realty Partners in 1997 and specializes in tenant representation. With over 20 years of tenant advisory experience, Todd increases enterprise value by incorporating real estate strategies that align with his clients primary business objectives. Whether it's top line revenue growth or increased EBITDA, Todd employs a strategy that enhances the success of his clients. Todd helps his clients follow a process starting with a needs assessment then guiding them through space programming, site selection, leverage, negotiations, design, construction and move coordination. His results on average saves clients up to 25% in overall project value.

Todd is committed to being one of the most informed and capable brokerage practitioners in the industry. He is among a small number of brokers who have earned both the prestigious SIOR (Society of Industrial & Office Realtors) and CCIM (Certified Commercial Investment Member) designations.
