Tronell Louis

Senior Building Operations Manager

Tronell joined Stream Realty Partners in 2012 and is the Assistant Regional Director of Operations for Stream Austin. He leads all new asset transitions across the market, including training new technicians, setting up each property in Stream's asset work order and preventative maintenance system (Impak), and completing annual operations audits for building technician teams across all product types (office, industrial and retail). In addition to his leadership and transition roles, Tronell oversees all Stream Austin mobile engineering technicians across 12.4 MSF. He has twenty-two years of experience in commercial building maintenance, with fourteen years of management experience.
